Education and Training Resources

Advocating Change Together

Advocating Change Together (ACT) started in 1979 in response to the growing concern that individuals with developmental disabilities were being isolated and excluded from decisions regarding their lives. ACT is a grassroots, member-controlled organization, run by and for persons with developmental and other disabilities. ACT has been successful in organizing persons with disabilities around common issues of concern because of a commitment to one premise: It is not the individual who must change to fit society, but rather, society and systems that must change to accommodate all people. Through our Common Vision workshops and Tools for Change educational materials, ACT works at both ends of the stream -- providing information, skill building, and leadership opportunities to individuals with disabilities and challenging institutional barriers, which limit full inclusion in society. <http://www.selfadvocacy.org/>

Imagine

The Imagine web page is dedicated to supporting people who experience disabilities and exhibit, what some have called, "difficult behaviors." In David Pitonyak's view, what's most needed when supporting someone who engages in difficult behaviors is imagination. If you will, the story line that is floating around about the person is a major part of the problem. What's needed is a new story.

Everyone Has A Gift: Building Communities of Capacity - 54:31 Min - Description: McKnight's perspective is a fairly radical one, in it's implications. He challenges the existing social service "system" of paid professionals believing that the sense of "building true community" is less likely to occur because of them. His premise of everyone having a gift and the capacity of people to give to others and communities to grow and succeed is stifled when people are seen as "needy", and "deficient", as labeled by the existing social service system. Education and Training Resources

Advocating Change Together (ACT) started in 1979 in response to the growing concern that individuals with developmental disabilities were being isolated and excluded from decisions regarding their lives. ACT is a grassroots, member-controlled organization, run by and for persons with developmental and other disabilities. ACT has been successful in organizing persons with disabilities around common issues of concern because of a commitment to one premise: It is not the individual who must change to fit society, but rather, society and systems that must change to accommodate all people. Through our Common Vision workshops and Tools for Change educational materials, ACT works at both ends of the stream -- providing information, skill building, and leadership opportunities to individuals with disabilities and challenging institutional barriers, which limit full inclusion in society. <http://www.selfadvocacy.org/>

AIDS Education & Training Center for NH

The AETC/NH began in 1988 and is based at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center. Imagine

The Imagine web page is dedicated to supporting people who experience disabilities and exhibit, what some have called, "difficult behaviors." In David Pitonyak's view, what's most needed when supporting someone who engages in difficult behaviors is imagination. If you will, the story line that is floating around about the person is a major part of the problem. What's needed is a new story.

Institute on Disability at UNH

The Institute on Disability (IOD) at the University of New Hampshire was established in 1987 to provide a coherent university-based focus for the improvement of knowledge, policy, and practice related to the lives of persons with disabilities and their families. The Institute on Disability's mission is to promote the full inclusion of people with disabilities into their communities. For more information about their conferences and seminars, visit their website at www.iod.unh.edu

Institute For Policy Research, Northwestern University

The Asset-Based Community Development \(ABCD\) Institute. This institute grew out of a project that evaluated the interrelationships of local associations, enterprises, and nonprofit organizations in cities around the country, and the effect of large public and private system policies upon their functions. Theories based on nationwide data gathered from over 100 neighborhoods in 20 cities on the community development potential of local assets such as schools, churches and parks, were refined and published in the book Building Communities from the Inside Out. <http://www.northwestern.edu/ipr/people/mcknight.html>

NH Council on Developmental Disabilities

The New Hampshire Council on Developmental Disabilities, a federally funded agency that supports public policies and initiatives that remove barriers and promote opportunities in all areas of life. The Council is independent of State government and the agencies that provide services to people with disabilities. The Council develops a State Plan every five years to establish specific goals, objectives and strategies to address the most important issues affecting people with developmental disabilities in New Hampshire. The Council carries out its mission through education, advocacy and the funding of innovative projects that make a difference in people's lives. <http://www.nhddc.org>

NH Division of Personnel – Bureau of Education and Training

To access the Training Opportunities Catalog you may visit their website at www.admin.state.nh.us. Many events are open under the topics of: leadership, management, mediation and communication skills, health and wellness programs, employee development, team building or strategic planning, computer and technical training.

The New Hampshire Challenge

The New Hampshire Challenge, Inc. is a federally recognized 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, which serves the state of New Hampshire. Our primary work is the publication of a statewide quarterly newspaper, The New Hampshire Challenge, for families who have members with disabilities. It is a quarterly publication, which disseminates in-depth information on disability issues from a family perspective. The New Hampshire Challenge over 14 years ago was founded by a parent of a child with a disability who knew first-hand the importance of reliable, in-depth information in making good decisions for her son and family. The Challenge has grown from a mailing list of 250 to the present numbers. www.nhchallenge.org

NH Statewide Independent Living Council

The NH Statewide Independent Living Council's (SILC) mission is to provide leadership and advocacy in support of the independent living philosophy for persons living with disabilities. The Council is made up of individuals who believe that individuals living with a disability should have the opportunity to live independently within their communities. If you would like more information about the SILC or are interested in becoming a board member, please feel free to contact Paula Ninivaggi, at 603-271-0476, or toll free 800-852-3405 ext. 0476, fax 603-271-2837, email: info@silcnh.org or visit their website at www.silcnh.org.

Northeast Deaf and Hard of Hearing Services, Inc.

Northeast Deaf and Hard of Hearing Services (NDHHS) is New Hampshire's "one-stop" resources for services specific to the Deaf and Hard of Hearing community and for information about hearing loss. If we don't have the services you need, we can refer you to someone who does. Please contact us with any questions, comments or feedback you have, telephone 603-224-1850, TTY 603-224-0691. Located at 57 Regional Drive, Concord NH 03301. info@ndhhs.org

Northeast Passage

The mission of Northeast Passage is to create an environment where individuals with disabilities can recreate with the same freedom of choice, quality of life, and independence as their non-disabled peers. We do this by developing, delivering, and evaluating innovative barrier-free recreation and health promotion programs. Our guiding principles are promoting client independence through education and problem solving, creating opportunities, and collaborating with others to create a strong network of accessible recreation. Please visit their website at www.nepassage.org
